1. Questions and Answers:

1.01 Question:

"The RFP states that the City is looking to procure a "professional licensed landscape architect, landscape maintenance firm, soils engineering firm, or a contractor with an "A" contractor's license." Is the City looking for a single team to fulfill all these roles or can a contractor/consultant submit on a single discipline?"

Answer:

The City is looking for one firm to perform this work for us. That consultant would be responsible for subcontracting out any work that needs to be done for the completion of the project if they do not have all of the disciplines necessary to do so.
